

International Training Programme - Disaster Risk Management (ITP DRM)
Contracting authority	The Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (Sida)
Duration	1 December 2018 – 31 May 2023
Consortium	Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency (MSB)
Target groups	MSB involves a mix of three actor categories in the ITP; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Government ○ Civil Society (including the Red Cross/Red Crescent) ○ Academia
Overall objective	Participating organizations have enhanced cooperation, coordination and information sharing capacity with other DRM stakeholders (including enhanced gender and environment considerations). Participating organizations have contributed to behavioural changes in DRM areas of their own choice through integrating relevant knowledge from the ITP (including gender and environment considerations). ¹
Learning objectives	After active participation in all elements of the ITP, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Articulate how change happens and identify entry points to push for change - Adapt DRM related insights for the betterment of your change initiative (and organization) - Demonstrate effective skills of leadership, advocacy, communication as well as training design and delivery - Integrate a gender, environmental and human rights perspective in your change initiative - Describe to effectively monitor progress or lack thereof - Enrich your DRM related networks
Cross-cutting issues (CCI)	The following cross-cutting issues has been identified as relevant for the programme. Extra resources and emphasis is placed on gender and diversity and environment and climate change. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Gender and diversity - Environment and climate change - Good Governance and anti-corruption - Human Rights Based Approach - The poor people's perspective - Conflict sensitivity
Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E)	The programme utilizes outcome mapping for programme results formulation and approach to monitoring. The M&E system monitor and evaluate progress to serve three main purposes, namely results accountability, partnership dialogue and continuous learning. The programme also benefits from ongoing evaluation conducted by Lund University.
Strategic Approach	The ITP programme has been designed with a set of approaches and core values in mind, which will continue to guide the further development, the implementation and monitoring of the programme. These are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Partnership approach - Focus on change and flexibility - Local adaptation
Type of activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Regional and national workshops - Training and exercises - Webinars - Mentoring - Participation in regional fora - Peer support and networking

¹ Due to utilizing outcome mapping for the ITP the outcome statements are long and therefore the ongoing evaluation synthesis of the mission statement is therefore presented here.

Organisational structure	Key Expert Team Capacity development and training specialists Two Capacity development and training specialists have the overall responsibility for the design, planning and implementation of different activities within the scope of the programme. They ensure quality and that pedagogic approaches is applied. Facilitators Short-term experts within different fields are engaged, based on identified needs, for different activities. Mentors Mentors are assigned to each change initiative to support the participants in the development and implementation of their change initiatives. Experts on cross-cutting issues The above mentioned specialists, facilitators and mentors, are supported by dedicated experts on cross-cutting issues. Experts on the following topics are continuously supporting the design, implementation and learning of the programme. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Environment ○ Gender and Diversity ○ Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E)
Project management and backstopping	MSB has overall project management, backstopping, financial and communication responsibilities, ensuring that agreement commitments are met.
Point of contact	itp@msb.se